United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child

MY RIGHTS!

If you are a child who is 8 years old, or younger, then this book is for you!

As a child you have these rights. Other children also have these rights. Adults and other children need to respect your rights. You also need to respect other children's rights.

All children are important. I am also important.

All children have the right to a name.

My name is:

I have the right to be with both my mother and my father.

I have the right to a good life.

I have the right to get help when I am not well or ill.

I have the right to tell others about my ideas and be listened to.

I have the right to play.

I have the right to learn.

Nobody is allowed to hit me. Nobody is allowed to make fun of me. I am not allowed to hit others or make fun of others.

I have all these rights. All children have all these rights.

The mission
